

Ken Galecki – Broker Associate

Ken brings over 30 years of experience in the Retail, Service, Warehouse, and Distribution sectors. He knows firsthand the challenges that today's business entrepreneurs face, and is very creative in determining solutions to assist both buyers and sellers.

Ken knows the importance of business execution and how it affects profitability. He also has several years of experience as a Warehouse Manager, Operations Manager, and Distribution Manager.

Ken has owned and sold three of his own businesses. All of these businesses were started with a minimum amount of capital. His resourcefulness and hard work made them successful.

Ken lives in Arvada and represents sellers in the Denver market as well as northern Colorado and the mountains. He is on the Board of Directors for the Denver Executive Association, and is also a member of the International Business Broker Association, and the Colorado Association of Business Intermediaries. Ken is licensed to sell businesses and real estate in Colorado. He graduated from Michigan State University with a B.A. in Business Management.

Ken's passions include anything outdoors – snowshoeing, hiking 14ers, backpacking, camping, and fishing. He also likes to play racquetball, softball, and bocce.

Please call Ken at 303.257.1620, or send him an email at ken@fbb.com, with your questions about buying, selling, and valuing a business. Consultations are confidential and without obligation.
