

- Business Sales and Acquisitions
- Valuations
- Retained Searches
- Investment Banking Services

Ron Brasch, Lifetime CBI, MBA, Lifetime Fellow of the IBBA Merger and Acquisition Specialist

Ron is one of a select group of intermediaries in the nation holding the Lifetime Certified Business Intermediary designation (CBI). He has been honored by the International Business Brokers Association with a lifetime designation as Fellow of the IBBA. Ron also holds Certified Negotiation Expert (CNE) status. He has been a successful intermediary for 22 years.

Ron holds an MBA and BA from The University of Michigan. He is a native of Detroit and relocated to Colorado from Boca Raton, Florida in 1998. Prior to joining The FBB Group, Ltd., in 1998, Ron was a client. FBB represented Ron in selling his 14 Relocation Guides that he founded, located throughout the United States.

The Colorado Springs Business Journal recognized Ron as one of the 25 "Men of the New Millennium" who have made a difference in Colorado Springs.

Ron brings to his clients at The FBB Group, Ltd. over 30 years of experience in the fields of publishing and marketing. He is passionate about the arts and recently served as Chair on the Board of Trustees for the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center (FAC). He currently serves on the boards of the FAC, the Fine Arts Center Foundation, the Colorado Springs Philharmonic (as the Treasurer), and the Colorado Springs Philharmonic Foundation. Ron is also active with numerous other non-profit organizations, including Galleries of Contemporary Art (GOCA) for the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs. In 2014, GOCA presented him with the inaugural Ron Brasch "Kick Ass for the Arts" Award that is given out annually.

In 2013, Ron was honored as the Business Leader in the Arts (with his wife Una) by the Colorado Springs Regional Business Alliance and the Cultural Office of the Pikes Peak Region. In 2011, he received the Community Support for Arts Education Award from the Arts Business Education Consortium and was nominated by the Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce as one of the Business Leaders in the Arts in 2009. He is the former Board President of the Manitou Art Center and past Chairman of the Art Commission for the Pikes Peak Region.

Ron represents clients primarily in Colorado, but additionally in other states. His professional affiliations include the International Business Brokers Association (IBBA) and Colorado Association of Business Intermediaries (CABI). His interests include collecting international contemporary art, writing poetry, and traveling abroad. The Brasch Collection of Art has been exhibited extensively over the years at museums and art centers.

Please contact Ron at 719.231.1927 with your questions about buying, selling, and valuing a business.
Consultations are confidential and without obligation.